

KANSAS CITY METRO AREA

Kansas City skyline

Harrisonville's close proximity to the Kansas City metropolitan area allows for easy access to nearly every kind of retail center, cultural amenity, and entertainment opportunity one could hope for. A thirty-minute drive on the four-lane, divided U.S. 71 Highway is all it takes to enjoy the myriad activities located in the nation's 31st largest city.

Recreational activity highlights:

- Worlds of Fun & Oceans of Fun Amusement Parks
- Kansas City Zoo
- NCAA Hall of Champions
- Riverboat Gambling Casinos

The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art is internationally renowned for its permanent and adjunct displays.

The J.C. Nichols Country Club Plaza is one of the nation's premier outdoor shopping centers.

Some notable cultural spots:

- Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art
- 18th and Vine Historic Jazz District
- Starlight Theatre
- Missouri Repertory Theatre
- Verizon Amphitheatre
- Renaissance Festival

Professional sports:

- |                         |                  |
|-------------------------|------------------|
| • Kansas City Chiefs    | (Football)       |
| • Kansas City Royals    | (Baseball)       |
| • Kansas City T-Bones   | (Baseball)       |
| • Kansas City Wizards   | (Outdoor Soccer) |
| • Kansas City Explorers | (Tennis)         |
| • Kansas Speedway       | (NASCAR)         |